Despite the loss of 23 seniors from the '64 championship team, this year's Redskins emerged with a 5-3 record and a second place spot in the Division I standings. The team finished high in the standings because of the determined effort of the coaches and players alike. The team was molded into a formidable unit by coaches Joe Foyle and Ron Bouchier. The '65 Redskins played hard, rugged football all season and as a result compiled victories over tough Division I teams like Frontier, Hamburg, Lackawanna, Maryvale and Amherst. Many of our boys from this year's team will be back next season.

CROSS COUNTRY SQUAD

The Lancaster Cross Country Team had a very successful season this year. Led by Chris Thomas, the harriers compiled a 13-1 won lost record and tied with Hamburg for the Division I E.C.I.C. Championship.

After an early season loss to Hamburg, the devoted runners continued to improve and eventually outdistanced the Bulldogs on their own home court in the E.C.I.C. Championship meet to share the division title.

Next year should prove to be a good year with Bob Davies, Mike Comfort, Dan Kloc and Frank Tessina all returning to defend the championship brought to Lancaster in 1965.

Letter winners this year were: Chris Thomas, Mike McAlpine, Bob Davies, Chuck Kanehl, Ron Krebs and Frank Tessina. Out of these winners Chris Thomas, Mike McAlpine and Bob Davies earned berths on the Division I All-Star Team. These three boys also represented Section II at Bear Mt., New York in the state meet.

The boys were coached by Mr. Walter who did a fine job and helped the boys improve to become champs.

DEDICATION

We dedicate our 1966 Cayugan to three very worthy people who have taken the "Excursion" through Lancaster Senior High for many years. They have become familiar to thousands of students who have traveled these halls.

It is then with great pride that we, the Cayugan staff wish to dedicate this yearbook to . . .

Miss Ada Snyder, who retired last year after serving the school system as instructor, librarian and counselor. She will always be remembered for her conscientious attitude.

Mr. Robert Wright, who is terminating his career this year as teacher of sciences. His devotion and interest have inspired many students to scientific vocations. It goes without saying, that this energetic person will leave a void hard to fill.

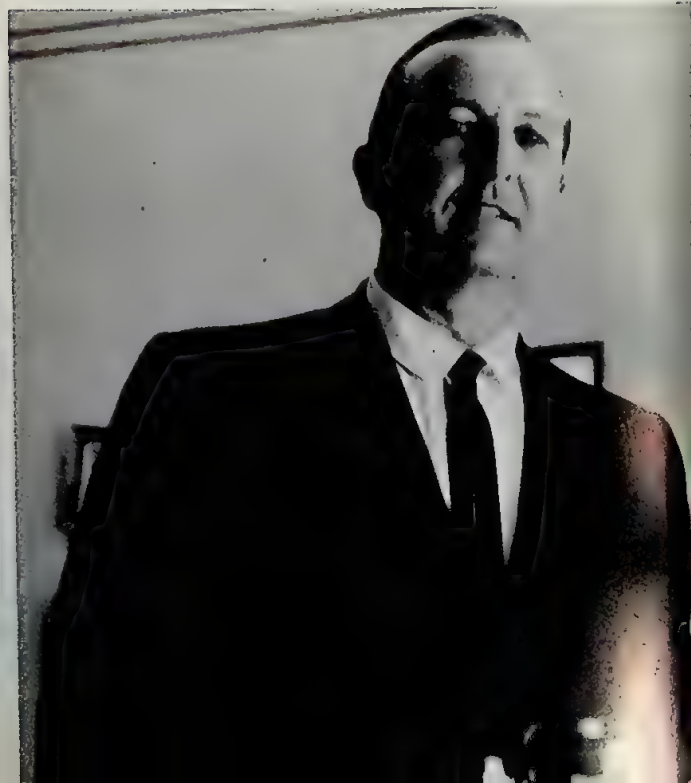

Miss Ruth Zuber, who will be remembered as a unique and helpful English teacher. Her enthusiasm for language and literature was contagious, and her humor delightful. Her absence after a year's retirement is sincerely noted.

PRINCIPAL

Oscar Roaldi
Lancaster Central Senior High School
Canisus College—B.A.—Math
University of Buffalo—M.A.—Education
Naval Academy at Annapolis

Counseling the students and teachers is just one of the many jobs that have become Mr. Roaldi's responsibility since his promotion from teacher of mathematics to principal.

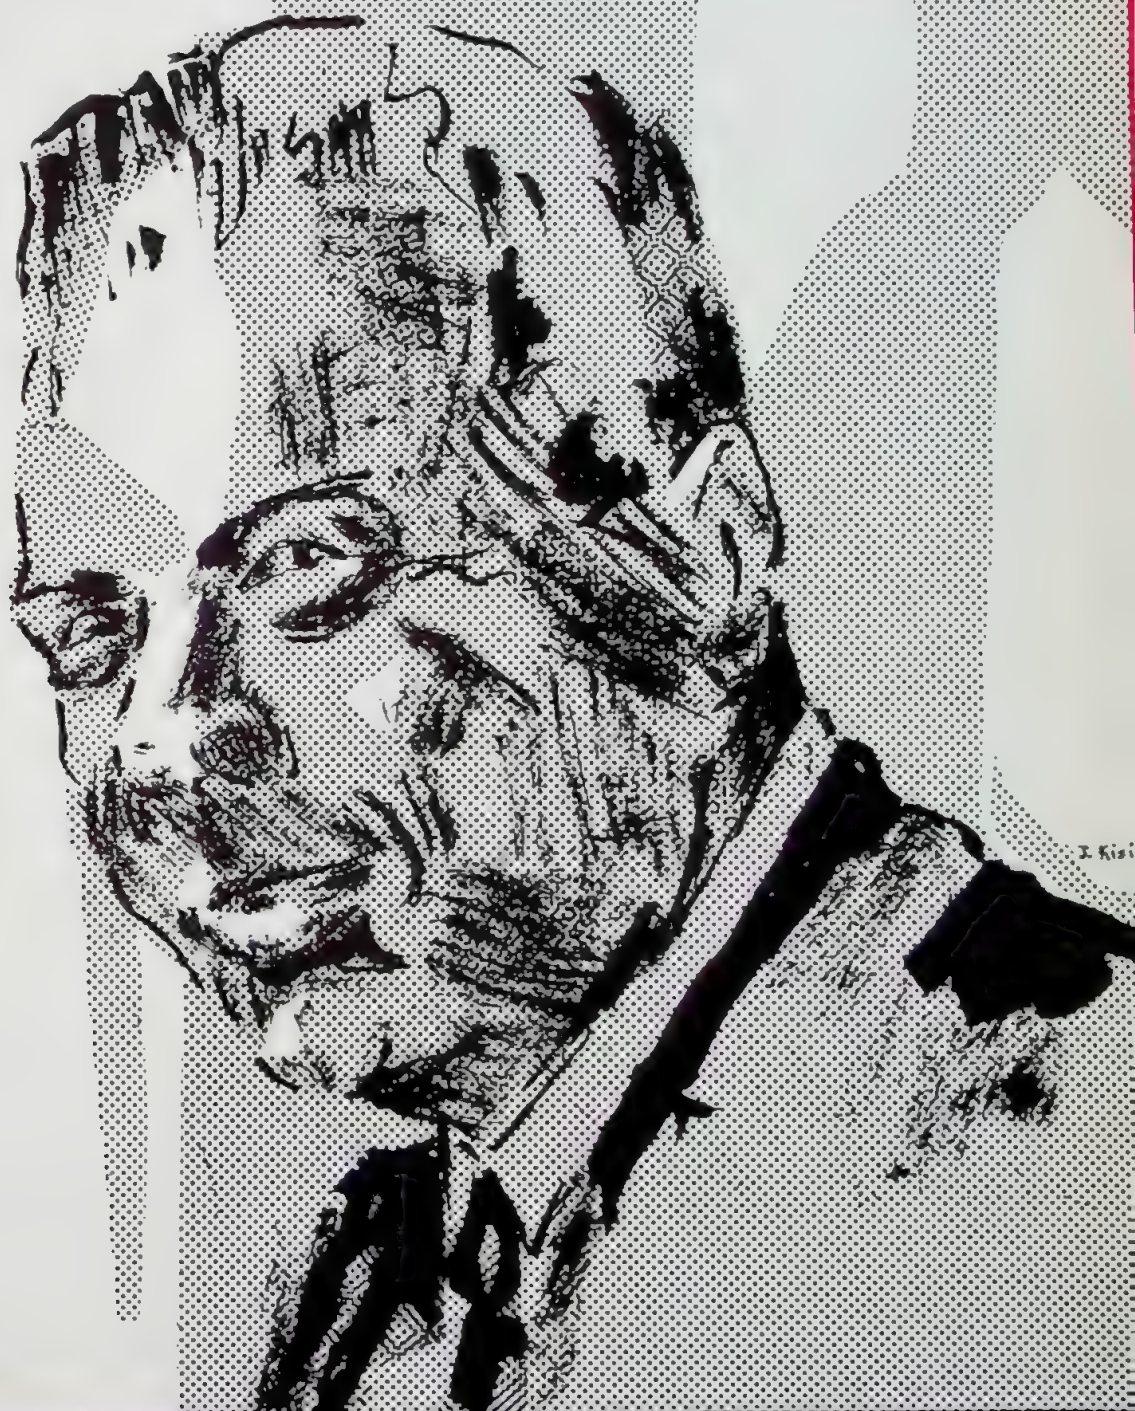

Mr. Roaldi has long been associated with the Lancaster School System. He was president of his Junior class in 1943-44. As a teacher he taught here 11 years and was summer school principal for two years.

Mr. Roaldi's pleasing personality has earned him the admiration and friendship of many students and teachers. "The only thing I regret," said Mr. Roaldi recently, "is that as principal I don't have enough time to solve all problems associated with this position." However, during his first year he has certainly made a great start!

Leo Koester
Lancaster Central Senior High School
University of Buffalo—B.A.—Business Education
University of Buffalo—M.A.—Secondary School Education

Our new assistant principal Mr. Leo Koester, better known as "Pop," is just that to every student in the school. He, a graduate of our school and one time teacher here, will always be remembered as a bright spot in the history of this school.

"Pop" enjoys his new position and said that it is a challenge to him to satisfy teachers and students alike.

Valedictorian Salutatorian

Mary Beth Anderson, Valedictorian of the Senior Class of 1966, merits this esteemed honor. She has attained an average of 95.80 for her years in high school in addition to participating in extracurricular activities. Mary Beth has been honored by induction into the National Honor Society. She has also been active as Vice President of the American Field Service, President of Future Teachers, and has participated in intramurals and chorus. Congratulations to Mary Beth for an honor well-deserved.

Linda Magrum, salutatorian of the graduating class of 1966, with an average of 95.62 has shown great scholastic achievement. In activities, she has contributed many useful hours as secretary of the National Honor Society and assistant in the guidance office. In her junior year, Linda was also honored with the school science award. Her varied interests involve her with the Senior Senate and the American Field Service. The Senior Class extends its congratulations to Linda.

 And taken in exchange—my youth."

HONORS

Joseph Radder

Judith Kiesel and Joseph Radder were the recipients of the annual art award for 1965.

The art award program was established by the Lancaster Parent Teachers Association to further develop the skills of the art student and to acquaint him with college life.

The students lived on campus for two weeks in July and participated in many activities such as: trips to the Albright Knox Art Gallery and Melody Fair, excursions to Niagara Falls and Delaware Park, and various get acquainted mixers.

Art Awards

At the workshop, the students were enrolled in three basic classes: drawing and painting, art history, and crafts. Making jewelry, enameling, metal sculpturing and stichery were the media the students could choose from in the craft class.

An art show of the students' work, to which parents and friends were invited was the highlight of the workshop.

The students both enjoyed their stay and hope the program will be continued so that other students can profit from it.

HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society is an organization representing one of the highest honors a high school student can attain. The members are expected to uphold the qualities of scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and to service the principles upon which this organization is based. Each fall and spring, students who have displayed these qualities are inducted into the group as new members. The activities of the Honor Society include handling the sale of student pictures and helping when needed in various school services. Miss Diana is the advisor of the organization and this year's officers are: Elizabeth Reger, President; Paul Ribbeck, Vice President; Linda Magrum, Secretary; and Fredrick Goerner, Treasurer.
